Day 1 80 mins		Unit 1: Family and Friends Lesson 1 Listen and Speak		➤get introduced to each other ➤develop listening skills ➤ get introduced to the topic of family ➤develop speaking skills and revise the present continuous tense ➤revise colors and clothes ➤use descriptive adjectives		textbook, writing board		Introduction: Make the students sit and introduce them with each other. They can ask questions like what is your name. My name is Ali etc. then ask each student to stand and introduce himself/herself to the whole class. Methodology: Ex A: Ask the students to look at the pictures and listen to the teacher carefully. Read about the pictures slowly and repeat each sentence twice. Pause after each one so that the students have time to write the numbers beside the names. - Samir is wearing a red shirt and dark green shorts. He is short and plump and he’s holding a tablet. Samir is Number 1, so there is a number 1 in the box beside his name, as an example. - Uncle Omer is wearing a light green shalwar kameez. He is near the door and he is quite tall. Write a number 2 in the box beside Uncle Omer. (Make sure to write down the unknown vocabulary on the board for students’ better understanding.) Ex B: Ask the students to look at the pictures carefully and tell why are they gathered and meeting with each other. You can ask about the special occasion shown in the picture. Talk about each person what he is doing and what he is wearing. They can talk about their dresses, colour and their actions. Encourage them to use descriptive adjectives to describe each person. For example: Grandfather is wearing grey and purple shalwar kameez. He is walking to the door. Encourage each student to participate in this oral descriptive activity. They can add in more information about the characters given by using colours, descriptive words (adjectives) etc. Ex C: Ask the students to sit in groups and look at the picture again and encourage them to talk about the people. Now write on the board the words given in the boxes. The students can use the words in the boxes to describe the family. They can take help from the adjectives given in the table to describe their appearance. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students some questions about the members of Fiza’s family like: - Who has grey hair and moustache? - Who is skipping? - Who is wearing glasses and talking to dadi?

Day 2	Unit 1: Fiza's Family Lesson 2 Phonics and Words	➤ learn and practice words with 'ar, a' ➤ complete the sentences	textbook, writing board, worksheet	Introduction: Ask the students to look at the words list and read the words. Let the students repeat after you. Make sure that the students know how to pronounce the words with phonemes of 'ar', and 'a'. Methodology: Ex A: Read the words from the list aloud stressing on the sound patterns of "ar" and "a" in each word. Tell them the same sounding pasterns of car and cart etc. Tell that the sound 'ar' and 'a' are the same. Make sure that the students know the meanings of all the phonic words. Revise all the patterns. Recite the words again and ask the students to repeat after. Make sure the students know the meanings of the words given in the list. Ex B: Discuss the picture with the students and explain that the grandpa has a farm in the countryside. Encourage the students to tell what they know about farms in the countryside and if they have ever visited any farmhouse. Read each sentence with the students, asking them to tell you the words that fit in the blanks. Supervise the class, and then ask them to write the completed sentences in their notebooks. Ex C: Explain the concept of family tree with the help of poem 'finger family'. Ask the students to look at the family tree given in Ex C. They will discuss the family members of Fiza's family. Now ask the students to mention the relation of the family members of Fiza's family. They can take help from the words (members) given in the table. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share the answers of the following questions looking at the family tree. 1. What is the relation of Fiza to Uncle Omer? 2. Who is Samir to Ali? Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework.
Day 3	Unit 1: Fiza's family Lesson 3 Reading: Sharing (I)	➤ improve reading skills ➤ read and understand the story	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by asking the students to talk on 'Sharing is Caring'. Also ask them to share what and how they share things with their siblings and friends. Take their responses and link it with the topic. Methodology: Ex A: Listen as you read the story. Then answer these questions: Read the story aloud and ask the students listen carefully. Discuss each picture with the students. Make the students understand that boys and girls are equal. After completing the reading, ask different questions from the students like: 1. What was the name of the girl? 2. What was the occasion shown in the story? 3. Did Samir share his things with Fiza? 4. What did Samir do with Fiza's toy? 5. Why was Fiza sad in the picture 8? Ex B: Ask the students to look at the pictures 2, 4, 7 and 8 and tell what time is there. Encourage the students to fill in the blanks using the words given in the Ex B.
