Day 1 80 mins	Unit 1: Family and Friends Lesson 4 Sentences	➤ learn and practice pronouns ➤ develop writing skills ➤ create their own description		textbook, writing board, notebook	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by sharing some sentences with the students such as: This is my bag. That is your book. This is our classroom. Tell them that that there are some more like his, her, their and these are used in place of nouns. Methodology: Ex A: First read out the sentences and explain to the students. Now ask them to fill in the blanks using my, your, his, her, their or ours. Make them sit together and do the task. Monitor the activity and give your feedback. Ex B: Ask the students to look at the picture and see what everyone is doing. Encourage them to share what they can see. It will help develop their speaking skills. They will complete the table about Fiza’s family with the help of the pictures. Take it as a class activity and let the whole class participate in it. Ex C: Ask the students to tell about what their friends like to do. It can be about sports, arts or any other activity. Take their responses, ask them to share with class and give your feedback. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by discussing the homework (worksheet) with the students. Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework.
Day 2	Unit 1: Family and Friends Lesson 5 Sentences	➤ put capital letters and full stops ➤ describe themselves ➤ play the game “Guess Who”		textbook, writing board, worksheet	Introduction: Start the lesson by asking students the following questions: 1. Where do we use the capital letters? 2. When do we use full stop? Methodology: Ex A: Ask the students to look at the example given and read it carefully. Guide them that we capitalize the first letter of a sentence. The name also starts with capital letter and we put a full stop at the end of a sentence. Now encourage them to punctuate the sentences given in the exercise. Move around the class to observe the activity. Ask them to share their work and give your feedback. Ex B&C: Read out the table and ask the students to listen it carefully. They will use this information to describe themselves. Divide them into groups. When the students have described themselves, hand the descriptions to other group and ask them to read it and guess who wrote them. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share a few sentence about their favorite person in the family.

Day 3	Topic: Nouns	➤ revise nouns ➤ identify nouns from their surrounding	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Write some sentences on the board with a word bank and expect students to fill in the blanks with correct option.
