

Lesson code		2021-08-01	Level	Primary	Total Time	40mins	Teaching Week		Aug (02-06)
Subject		English	Books	Oxford Progressive English		Page No.	2-5		Class	Three
				Hand writing Hunt-II			1-6
Day Time	Chapter Topic	Objectives: The students will be able to:	Teaching Resources:	Teaching Learning Strategies
Day 1 80 mins	Unit 1: Meet the Family Lesson 1 Listen and Speak	➤ get introduced to each other ➤ read the dialogue ➤ improve listening skills	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Make the students sit and introduce them with each other. They can ask questions like what is your name. My name is Ali etc. then ask each student to stand and introduce himself/herself to the whole class. Methodology: Ex A: First read the dialogue and ask the students to listen it carefully. Later, make the students sit in pair following SOPs and ask them to practice the dialogue with each other. Move around the class to observe the dialogue activity. Ex B: The teacher will read the sentences like: Mr. Burki is going to the seaside next weekend. He is going alone. He's going to build a boat there. Mrs. Burki will be free next weekend. She's going to paint the house of her friend. She is going to paint the house of her friend. The children are going to stay at school for the weekend. Ask the students to listen to the teacher carefully and let them make corrections where wrong information is given according to the dialogue. Ex C: Read out aloud the conversation between Dada and Dadi about their grandchildren. Read out slowly and repeat so that the students may be able to understand the information given in the conversation. After listening the sentences, let the students write down the children's ages next to their names given in the family tree. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to talk about their brothers, sisters and their ages.
Day 2	Unit 1: Meet the family Lesson 2 Words: Family members	➤ learn and practice words with 'o' ➤ complete the sentences	textbook, writing board, worksheet	Introduction: Ex A: Read the words with different pronunciation for the letter 'o' such as brother, rocket etc. Read the words and ask the students to repeat after you. Recite the words again and ask the students to repeat after. Make sure the students know the meanings of the words given in the list. Methodology: Ex B: Explain the concept of family tree with the help of poem 'finger family'. Ask the students to look at the family tree given in Lesson 1 Ex C. Use the words given in the box to complete the given sentences. Ex C: They will discuss the family members of the family mentioned in the Ex. Now ask the students to answer the puzzles for example: Mariam's mother's sister is Mrs. Burki. Encourage them to share answer to some more questions about the Burki and Dani families. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share the answers of the following questions looking at the family tree. 1. Who is Fahad's sister? (Mariam) 2. How many sisters does Imran have? (two)

Day 3	Unit 1: Meet the family Lesson 3 Reading: What I learned about my granddad	➤ improve reading skills ➤ read and understand the story ➤ do the worksheet	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by asking the students to tell what is a biography? is. Take their ideas and link it with the topic. Methodology: Ex A: Tell the students that the following story is a biography of granddad. Tell them that a biography is a description of a person's life. In the following story granddad shared his life history, how he struggled all his life and now he was the owner of the printing company where he used to work as an employee. Read the story aloud and ask the students listen carefully. Write some unknown vocabulary on the board along with their explanation so that the students may understand it such as: coal mines, stationery, pleased, accountancy, adventurous, skated, odd etc. After completing the reading, ask different questions from the students like: 1. What kind of a person was Granddad? 2. Was he rich or poor? 3. Was he hard-working or lazy person 4. How he used to go to school during winters? Ex B: The students will re-read the text and write the facts about Granddad's life in their notebooks. Ex C: Read each sentence aloud and let the students tell whether it's true or false statement. Also ask them to share the correct sentences. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share if they have ever read a biography of a person. Homework: The students will do the worksheet in homework.
Day 4	Unit 1: Meet the family Lesson 3 Reading: What I learned about my granddad	➤ learn the difficult vocabulary ➤ write a biography of a person	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Start the lesson by asking the students to share the most interesting part of the story they read in previous lesson and also share the reason for liking it. Methodology: Ex D: Read out the phrases given in the exercise and let the students share the words or phrases in the text that mean or explain them. They can take help from the text as well. Ask them to write down the words in their notebooks. Make sure that the students write correct spellings. Ex E: Ask the students to write a biography of their grandparents and write about their school-days. They can use the sentences given in the exercise to start the paragraph. Encourage them to collect information about their grandparents so that they can write information based on facts. It will be solved on the worksheets. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share how they spend their pocket-money. Take their response and give your feedback. Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework. Make sure to discuss the worksheet in the classroom.
Day 5	Handwriting Hunt	➤ learn and practice upper and lower case alphabet	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Before starting the writing practice, make sure pencil is sharp, pencil grip is good, position of paper and sitting posture of the student is correct. Now tell the students what upper and lower case alphabet is. Methodology: Model writing: Draw four lines on writing board to tell the students where to start and end a letter in the lines. Guided Practice: Go along each row to observe the guided writing. Correct the students at the spot or use the writing board to clarify the formation of any word. Independent practice: Allow the students to start the writing practice in books. Go along each row to observe the activity. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by checking their writing and give your feedback.

Worksheet (Day 3)

Topic: Sentences

Class: III

Name: _____

Date: _____

• Use the following words in your own sentences:

1. coal-mines

2. pleased

3. spare

4. damp

5. pocket-money

Worksheet (Day 4)

Topic: Meet the family

Class: III

Name: _____

Date: _____

- Ask your grandparents about their school-days. Then write a paragraph about them using their answers and these starter sentences.

My grand ____ was born in ____ (year). He/She grew up in ____ (place). He/She left school at the age of _____. He/She remembers a time when
