Day 1 80 mins	Unit 1: Meet the Family Lesson 4 Sentences	- practice the use of reporting verbs: say, ask, speak, talk - make their own sentences	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Tell the students that we use different verbs to report (to say) something such as say, ask, speak, and talk. These verbs are used to ask or tell something (speak, say, talk). Methodology: Ex A: Tell the students that these sentences 1 to 7 in Ex A makes a dialogue. Read the whole dialogue aloud, while the class follows it in their books. The students will choose the correct answers. Now ask them to circle the correct one and share with the whole class. Listen to them and give your feedback Ex B: Demonstrate by how to do the exercise by doing sentence 1 on the board and then encourage the students to do rest of the sentences. Read aloud sentence 2 and ask a student to give the alternative sentence ‘Did you have a good journey?’ Mrs. Bate asked. Tell them to use the given words in place of italic words in Ex A. The students will write down the new sentences in their notebooks. Encourage them to share their sentences with the class. Listen and then give your feedback. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share sentences by adding some more information instead of given words. It will enhance their vocabulary.
Day 2	Unit 1: Meet the Family Lesson 4 Sentences	- arrange the sentence in correct order - punctuate the sentences	textbook, writing board, worksheet	Introduction: Write some sentences on the board and ask the students to write in correct order and then punctuate correctly. than/ More/ people/200/were/last/ arrested./night (More than 200 people were arrested last night.) sleepy./baby/to/very/be/seems/Tom’s (Tom’s baby seems to be very sleepy.) Methodology: Ex C: Explain to the students that we need to punctuate the sentences after putting them in correct order. Put them in pairs and ask them to write their sentences in correct order. Also ask them to punctuate the sentences by capitalizing the first letter and putting full stop or question mark at the end of the sentences. Check their sentences and give your feedback. Ex D: Read out the story aloud and discuss it with the students. Now ask them to underline the proper nouns in the paragraph. Tell the students to capitalize first letter of all the proper nouns and first words of a sentence in the paragraph. Encourage the students to write carefully and neatly. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share their paragraph and then give your feedback. You can also paste the best one on the board for their encouragement.
Day 3	Unit 1: Meet the family Lesson 5 Reading:	- improve reading skills - answer the questions - create your own sentences	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by asking the students to predict what the story is about. Take their ideas and link it with the topic. Methodology: Ex A: Read the paragraph and ask students to follow you carefully. Discuss all words with their meanings. Tell the students to them to say if find confusion in pronunciation. Ex B: Work through the answers one by one with the whole class, correcting individual answers where answers. Ex C: Explain the worksheet to the students and let them do it on their own. Ask the students to share some information about them and their family. Now encourage them to fill in the blanks on their own. Encourage them to add some more information if they want to. Ask the students the day before to bring in
