

Lesson Code		2022-08-01	Level	Primary	Total Time	40 min.	Teaching Week	Aug (01-05)
Subject		English	Books	Oxford Progressive English		Page No.	1-4	Class	One
				Step-by-step English Grammar			7-8
Day Time	Chapter Topic	Objectives: The students will be able to:	Teaching Resources:	Teaching Learning Strategies
Day 1	Unit 1: Kindness Lesson 1 Biography	➤to explore the theme of the text: role models – incidents from the life of Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) ➤to recognize the text type of biography ➤learn and practice upper and lower case alphabet	textbook, writing board, worksheet	Introduction: Let the students sit in pairs and get them introduced to each other. They can ask questions like what is your name. My name is Ali etc. Then ask each student to stand and introduce himself/herself to the whole class Explanation: Development of Reading Skills Ex A: Read the text aloud and discuss what it is about. If necessary, use the mother tongue in discussion as the extensive reading passages should be read for meaning. Ask the students to tell about grown-ups who are kind to them. Elicit that a role model is someone who shows us how to behave well by their actions. Hazrat Muhammad is a good role model because He showed people how to be kind. Explain that a biography is the story of someone’s life Ex B: Go through the sentences orally and ask the students to tick the correct words. After discussion, the children can copy the sentences in their notebooks. Handwriting Hunt: Before starting the writing practice, make sure pencil is sharp, pencil grip is good, position of paper and sitting posture of the student is correct. Now tell the students what upper and lower case alphabet is. Model writing: Draw four lines on writing board to tell the students where to start and end a letter in the lines. Guided Practice: Go along each row to observe the guided writing. Correct the students at the spot or use the writing board to clarify the formation of any word. Independent practice: Allow the students to start the writing practice in books. Go along each row to observe the activity. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share some examples of kindness of Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) with the children.
Day 2	Unit 1: Kindness Lesson 2 Eid Festival	➤to explore the themes of the text: festivals and cultural events – enjoying festivals– ➤to demonstrate comprehension of a text ➤to use pictures to increase understanding ➤to recognize an information text	textbook, writing board, pictures or video	Introduction: Brainstorming: Ask the students to talk about their own experiences of Eids. If possible, show pictures or videos of Eid celebrations to stimulate discussion of what we enjoy at Eid. Ask the children to tell you what they did last Eid. https://youtu.be/5gf-BE-pgSg  Explanation: Picture Description and Development of Speaking and Reading Skills Ex A: Encourage them to tell:

				➤ Who they saw and what they ate. ➤ What did they most enjoy? ➤ Ask different children to describe what is happening in the picture. Elicit that the lady is giving some food to a hungry family. The man in the purple kameez is helping an old man to walk. Elicit that we all help others at Eid. This helps us to understand the text. Explain that this is an information text because it tells us what real people do at Eid. It is not a made-up story. Ex B: Match and copy the sentences. Ask different children to read aloud the beginning of each sentence and match it to the correct ending. The children can copy the complete sentences in their notebooks. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by discussing the worksheet to be given as homework.
Day 3 80 mins	Unit 1: Kindness Lesson 3 Story about Kindness	➤ to explore the themes of the text: role models – heroic deeds of children depicting personal bravery ➤ media – media as a source of learning and holistic development ➤ to guess what follows in a story ➤ to demonstrate comprehension of a text	textbook, writing board	Introduction: Picture Description: Ask the students to look at the picture and tell what they can see there. The teacher may ask questions such as: . Who is the old lady in the picture? . What is the girl doing? Explanation: Development of Speaking and Reading Skills: Ex A: Read the text aloud and let the students listen carefully. Talk about the heroic deed of Amna in the story and how she used media (mobile) sensibly to rescue her grandmother. Discuss how Amna was sensible and brave to ring her mother and to follow her mother's advice carefully. Elicit that Amna was brave because she did not panic. She was calm, sensible and caring, and helped her grandmother to get better. The teacher will explain that a descriptive text is something in which something is described in such a way that the picture is formed in the reader's mind. Group Work: Divide the students in groups and assign them characters of the story and encourage them to demonstrate the text. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by encouraging them to share any incidence of kindness they ever did to anyone. Home Work: The students will do ex B in homework.
Day 4	Unit 1: Kindness Lesson 4 Love for Pakistan	➤ to explore the themes of the text: patriotism/national pride – love of Pakistan ➤ to follow a picture map ➤ to recognize a map and factual text	textbook, writing board, wall map of Pakistan	Introduction: Class Discussion: Bring a wall map of Pakistan into class. If possible, show the student a wall map of Pakistan. Point to where you all live. Help different students to come to the map and show places that they have visited. Explanation: Ex A: Development of Speaking and Reading Skills Read the text aloud. Discuss the differences between Pakistanis – for example, the different languages they speak and the different clothes they wear. Talk about the differences between rich and poor, their large/small houses and the ways they travel. Elicit that we should all be kind to each other because we share the same country, Pakistan. We should treat all other Pakistanis in the same polite, kind way, however rich or poor they are. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to look at the pictures of children and tell different types of dresses they're wearing. Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework. Make sure to discuss the worksheet in the classroom.
Day 5	Lesson: The Alphabet	➤ revise the alphabet ➤ identify small and capital letters ➤ write words using small	Grammar, writing board	Introduction: Ask students about English alphabet. Call some volunteer students to write capital and small alphabet on the board and ask the whole class to read it aloud. Explanation: Make the students listen this alphabet song to recall the alphabet and how to pronounce them.

		letters ➤ write words in alphabetical order	Let us Understand: Ask the students to look at the letters carefully. They will identify and circle the small letters. Practice: Ask the students to go through the whole alphabet and write down the missing letters. After completing the table, they will write the alphabet (small and capital) in their notebooks. Move around the class to monitor the activity. Extended Exercise: Part A. Ask the students to look at each picture carefully and read their names. Ask them to write their names in small letters. They can take help from the alphabet on page 7. Part B. Read the given list of words and ask the students to listen carefully. Make students to sit in groups and ask them to write the words in alphabetical order. Move around the class to observe the activity. Check their work done and give your feedback. Wrap up: Check their work; give your feedback at the spot. Take their responses and ask what they have learnt from the lesson.
--	--	---	--

Worksheet

Topic: biography

Name: _____

Class: I

Date: _____

- Complete the following sentences using colour pencils.

1. Muhammad was born ...

through angel Jibreel.

2. Muhammad is Allah's last...

in Madinah, Saudi Arabia after he passed away.

3. Allah sent Prophet Muhammad and the Qur'an...

around 570 A.D. in the city of Makkah.

4. The Qur'an is a record of Allah's words brought down to earth...

to teach Islam to everyone

5. Muslims follow the example of Muhammad because...

prophet and messenger.

6. Our beloved Prophet Muhammad was buried...

he was the best man to ever walk this earth.

Worksheet

Topic: Sentences

Class: I

Name: _____

Date: _____

- Read the following words, write them in the order in which they should come in the alphabet:

hat	can	bat
dog	sat	tap
rat	pat	his

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.
