

Lesson code		2022-08-01	Level	Elementary	Total Time	40mins	Teaching Week	Aug (01-05)
Subject		English	Books	Oxford Progressive English		Page No.	02-08	Class	VII
Day Time	Chapter Topic	Objectives: The students will be able to:	Teaching Resources:	Teaching Learning Strategies
Day 1 80 mins	Unit1: Elephants: Reading (Fiction)	➤improve reading skills ➤learn new words	textbook, notebook, dictionary, white board	Introduction: Brainstorming: Initiate the lesson by asking the students to share what they think the title ‘Revenge’ means. Methodology: Development of Reading and Speaking Skills Reading: Fiction (Revenge): Teacher will do model reading in the class first paragraph on page 2. Divide the students in groups and assign them the paragraphs for reading. Ask them to underline the difficult words and encourage them to find their meanings in the dictionaries. Discuss the story with the students and encourage them to share with the whole class. Vocabulary: Pair Share Work: • The students in pairs will read the columns and will use thesaurus to find the synonyms/meanings of the words given in column. After discussing the meanings, make corrections where needed and give your feedback. Encourage each student to take part in this oral activity. • Now ask the pairs to fill in the blanks in the given sentences using the word from the text. They can take help from the textbook as well. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share their reviews about the revengeful nature of the elephant and how loyal the elephant was to its master. Discuss the homework with the students. Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework. Make sure that the worksheet should be discussed in the classroom.
Day 2	Unit1: Elephants: Reading for Understanding/Reading for Details	➤ retell the story ➤ use inference to solve the mystery in the text (revenge)	textbook, notebook, whiteboard	Introduction: Oral Activity: The teacher will give the students some time to recall the story ‘Revenge’ and retell it in their own words. For their remembrance, the teacher may ask basic questions from the students to answer the related questions such as: 1. Who was McKay-thakin? 2. Who was Hsin-ouq? Methodology: Inference of the Text (Revenge): Reading for Understanding: Pair Share Work: • The students in pairs will answer the questions assigned to them. • They will read the text again for better comprehension. The teacher will give feedback and make corrections. Reading for Inference: Classroom Activity: • The teacher will read each question and will allow the students to infer the text to answer the question. • The readers will use the clues within the text to make some guess and answer which is not directly said in the text. • After discussing, the students will note down answers in their notebooks. Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the students to share what was the significance of tiny fragile sound of the bell that was hung around the neck of Shwe Doke. Take their reviews and discuss it with the class.

Day 3	Unit1: Elephants: Speaking and Listening	➤improve their listening skills ➤improve their speaking skills ➤learn to work in groups	textbook, notebook	Introduction: Begin the lesson by asking the students to share if they ever have read mystery book or watched a film. Take their reviews and discuss that the Revenge is also a mystery and let the students conclude the story of Shwe Doke. Methodology: Development of Listenin and Speaking Skills: Group Work: • Divide the students into groups and ask them to discuss the story of Revenge which is a mystery. • Let them discuss and find the answers to the following questions: ➤how did the elephant, Shwe Doke, escape from her heavy chains. ➤why did she attack McKay-thakin's tai? ➤why is the story called Revenge • Let the students discuss the points as they already have read and discussed the story in previous lesson. • Observe their activity conducted. • Now encourage the groups to share their conclusions and see if all the groups agree with the interpretations of the story. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share the most mysterious part from the story (Revenge).
Day 4	Grammar: Topic: 'Nouns'	➤ revise nouns ➤ learn kinds of nouns, identify kinds of nouns ➤ identify countable and uncountable nouns	whiteboard, notebook, worksheet, supportive resource material	Introduction: Warm Up Activity: Group Work: Divide the worksheets (passage) among the students and ask them to do it in groups. Encourage them to go through the passage and underline common nouns and circle proper nouns. Methodology: Classroom Discussion: • Now tell them that nouns are divided into five kinds: Discuss all the five types of nouns and encourage them to share examples of these types. Discuss countable and uncountable nouns along with the examples as well. Tell them that common nouns can be countable or uncountable nouns. Pair Work: The students will solve the given worksheets in pairs. Wrap up: Summarize the kinds of noun encouraging the students to share the examples of their own.
Day 5	Chapter 1: "Nouns"	➤learn and practice compound nouns, ➤revise all kinds of nouns	whiteboard, notebook, worksheet, supportive resource material	Introduction: Write a sentence on the board and ask the students to identify and correct the plural form of nouns. 1. The cattles were grazing in the field. 2. I have a spectacle. Methodology: Worksheets will be distributed among the students to solve it. The students will be able to solve the worksheets and identify the kinds of noun on their own Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the students to give examples of concrete, abstract, collective and material nouns.

Worksheet

Topic: Elephants

Class: VIII

Name: _____

Date: _____

➤ Read the text again and write at least seven characteristics of Shwe Doke.

Worksheet

Topic: Nouns and their kinds Class: VII
Name: _____ Date: _____

Date: _____

Name: _____

- ## The Wise Son

[illegible]

Worksheet

Topic: Nouns and their kinds

Class: VII

Name: _____

Date: _____

- Classify the bold nouns into their kinds (common noun, proper noun, collective noun, abstract noun, material noun).

1. Always speak the truth.
2. I have two brothers.
3. Birds of feather flock together.
4. He is on the jury.
5. The Nile is the longest of all rivers.
6. The heat was so intense that we had to retreat to the house.
7. The bench of judges declared him innocent.
8. Who teaches you grammar?
9. It was Edison who invented the photograph.
10. Silver and gold are precious metals.
11. Honesty is the best policy.
12. I would like another plate of pasta, please.

Answer Key

1. abstract noun
2. common noun
3. common noun
4. collective noun
5. proper noun
6. uncountable noun
7. collective noun
8. abstract noun
9. proper noun
10. material noun
11. abstract noun
12. countable noun

Worksheet

Topic: Nouns and their kinds

Class: VII

Name: _____

Date: _____

• Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the nouns given in brackets:

1. Their two _____ (son-in-law) are coming next week.
2. There is a meeting of all the _____ (commander-in-chief) at the headquarters.
3. They have replaced the pieces of their old _____ (furniture) with new ones.
4. The customer is fond of _____ (jewellery).
5. The clerk at the desk gave me all the _____ (information) I needed.
6. The culprit turned out to be a wolf in sheep's _____ (clothing).
7. One of his _____ (tooth) was decaying at an alarming rate.
8. The _____ (vice chancellor) of different universities have agreed on the new proposal.

Answer Key

1. sons-in-law
2. commanders-in-chief
3. furniture
4. jewellery
5. information
6. clothing
7. teeth
8. vice-chancellors

Supportive Resource Material

1. DEFINITION :

A noun is the name of a person, animal, place or thing. It may also name a feeling, quality or an idea. Thus a noun is a 'naming word'.

2. KINDS OF NOUNS :

Nouns are categorized into five groups :

- (a) Proper Nouns
- (b) Common Nouns
- (c) Abstract Nouns
- (d) Collective Nouns
- (e) Material Nouns

(a) Proper Noun :

It denotes a particular person, place or thing, e.g. Sohan, Rita, Delhi, India, Asia, Taj Mahal, Diwali, Christmas, etc.

(b) Common Noun :

It is the name common to every thing or person of the same kind, class or group, e.g. pen, doctor, boy, woman, computer, tiger, city, bird etc.

(c) Abstract Noun :

An Abstract Noun denotes a quality, action, state, or an idea. Abstract nouns can neither be seen nor be touched. We can only think of them.

Examples :

truth, honesty, bravery, stupidity, sympathy, wisdom, hatred, theft, mischief, activity, childhood, adolescence, freedom, puberty, sickness, death, penury, politics, botany, music, grammar, astrology, etc.

(d) Collective Noun :

It is the name of the same type of persons or things taken together and regarded as one entity, e.g. class, army, crowd, jury, committee, herd, dozen etc.

(e) Material Noun :

A material noun is the name of a matter or substance of which things are made, e.g. iron, wood, silver, gold, wheat, paper, mud, etc.

Countable Nouns	Uncountable Nouns
1. They can be used both in singular and plural : book – books man – men computer - computers	They are always singular and take a singular verb : Gold is a precious metal. The tea is cold . Milk is good for everyone.
2. They can take the indefinite article a or an in the singular : a boy, an umbrella	They cannot take the indefinite article a or an . We cannot say : a rice, a gold or a milk.
3. They are qualified by adjectives like many and a few : many tables, a few students	They are qualified by adjectives as much , a little , some . Give me a little tea. Do not eat much sugar . Can I get some coffee ?

Supportive Resource Material

8. All compound nouns ending in '-man' are changed into '-men' in plural, e.g. :

Singular	Plural	Singular	Plural
chairman	chairmen	washerman	washermen
Englishman	Englishmen	workman	workmen
gentleman	gentlemen	statesman	statesmen
fisherman	fishermen

9. Some compound nouns form the plural by adding 's' to the principal word, e.g. :

Singular	Plural	Singular	Plural
sister-in-law	sisters-in-law	daughter-in-law	daughters-in-law
looker-on	lookers-on	passer-by	passers-by hanger-on	hangers-on

In some cases, the second word of a compound noun is principal word e.g. :

Singular	Plural	Singular	Plural
arm-chair	arm-chairs	class-fellow	class-fellows
footman	footmen	governor-general	governor-generals