- Read the passage carefully taken from the text 'Sun Swallow' and write down synonyms of underlined words:
- Meanwhile, high in the sky, the disturbance around Swallow was fearful; a strong fast moving stream of wind flowed like the river below. The lining of his stomach seemed to him to be shouting, and it was a long time before he realized that the noise came from the bamboo howlers attached to the kite; an unhappy, frightening howling which seemed to echo off the dome of the sky. It was a gloomy, full of sorrow, supernatural noise. The people on the ground heard it. They listened, heads up. Hands moved freely to the lucky charms around their necks. They thought they were hearing the voices of their forefathers.

Answer key

Meanwhile, high in the sky, the turbulence around Swallow was fearful; a torrent of wind flowed like the river below. The lining of his stomach seemed to him to be screaming, and it was a long time before he realized that the noise came from the bamboo howlers attached to the kite; a desolate, ghostly howling which seemed to echo off the dome of the sky. It was a dismal, mournful, supernatural noise. The people on the ground heard it. They listened, heads up. Hands strayed to the lucky charms around their necks. They thought they were hearing the voices of their ancestors.
