Day 1 80 mins		Unit 1: Role Models and Festivals Lesson 1		➤ get introduced to each other ➤ explore the themes of the text: Role models - Incidents from the Life of Hazrat Muhammad ➤ demonstrate comprehension of a text ➤ recognize the text type of a biography		textbook, writing board, photos of Makkah		Introduction: Ask the children to tell you what they know about Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) and how we know about him - through the Qur'an, the holy book of Muslim. Methodology: Development of Reading and Speaking Skills: Ex A: Read the text aloud and discuss it. If necessary, use the mother tongue in discussion as the extensive reading passages should be read for meaning. The teacher can show some photos of Makkah, asking the students to tell you what they know. Discuss why it is important to tell the truth. Elicit that it is wrong to tell lies because people don't trust us if we do. Explain that a role model is someone who shows us how to behave well by their actions. Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) is a good role model because he showed people how to be truthful and kind – and much more. Explain that a biography is the story of someone's life. Ex B: Go through the sentences orally and ask the children to find words in the text that complete the sentences. After discussion, the students can copy the sentences in their notebooks. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share at least three sentences about the importance of honesty.
Day 2		Unit 1: Role Models and Festivals Lesson 2		➤ explore the themes of the text: Enjoying festivals, Ethics and values: Peaceful Co-existence. ➤ demonstrate comprehension of a text ➤ use pictures to increase understanding ➤ recognize the text type of an email		textbook, writing board, pictures or videos of Eid celebrations		Introduction: Ask the students to tell what they did last Eid. Elicit that we eat goat meat at Eid-ul-Azha and that it is sometimes called Bakra Eid. Explain that many people go to Makkah at Eid ul-Azha and that this journey is called Hajj. All Muslims try to go to Makkah at least once in their lives if they can afford to. Methodology: Ex A: Read the text aloud. Discuss why everyone on Hajj wears white and elicit that before Allah everybody is equal and they all work together. Explain that this is an email text and discuss the meaning of To, Subject and Send. Ask the children to guess the meaning of the icons at the bottom. Ex B: Ask different children to read aloud each sentence and choose the correct ending. 2. The children can copy the complete sentences in their notebooks Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by discussing the worksheet. Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework.

Day 3	Unit 1: Role Models and Festivals Lesson 3	➤ explore the themes of the text: Role Models ➤ guess what follows in a story ➤ demonstrate comprehension of a text ➤ recognize the text type of a summary and a certificate	textbook, writing board, school certificates	Introduction: Ask the children to look at the page before they read it and guess what it is about by looking at the picture and certificate. Methodology: Ex A: Ask the students to look at the page before they read it and guess what it is about by looking at the picture and certificate. If possible, show a certificate to the children. Elicit that it is an award for doing well. It summarizes – or tells in brief – the good things that someone has done. Ask why some parts of the certificate are in big letters. Elicit that they are headings, which show what the certificate is about. Explain that an important person usually signs a certificate and gives awards. In a school, the most important person is the Head Teacher and she is putting Musefa’s award around her neck in the picture. Explain that grown-ups get awards too. For example, very brave soldiers get the Nishan-e-Haider award. Talk about each part of Musefa’s certificate and why she is a good role model for other children. If you have awards in your school, discuss what children have to do to win them Ex B: Ask the children to complete each sentence orally. Those who finish early can copy the sentences in their notebooks. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share some classroom rules with the class.
Day 4	Unit 1: Role Models and Festivals Lesson 4	➤ explore the themes of the text: Love of Pakistan, Nature – Taking care of plants, Knowledge/awareness of the immediate natural environment ➤ demonstrate comprehension of a text ➤ recognize and follow a flow chart	textbook, writing board, some plant or seed or pot, a wall map of Pakistan	Introduction: If possible, show the children a wall map of Pakistan. Point to where you all live. Help different children to come to the map and show places that they have visited. Explain that over many years, the forests in Pakistan have been cut down. Talk about the reasons why we need trees – to give us shade in summer, to provide us with oxygen to breathe, to hold down the soil, to give homes to wildlife. Methodology: Explain that these children are planting trees to make their country – Pakistan – a better place. If possible, get your pupils to grow some plants – either in pots or in the school grounds. If possible, get them to plant trees. Read the text. Discuss how to read a flow chart. Point out that it explains the correct order of doing things. Talk through the order of the sentences orally before asking the children to number them. After you have checked the numbers, they can copy the sentences in the correct order. Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share at least 3 benefits of trees. Take their ideas and give your feedback.
