

Lesson code		2022-08-02	Level	Elementary	Total Time	40mins	Teaching Week	Aug (08-12)
Subject		English	Books	Oxford Progressive English		Page No.	07-13	Class	VI
Day Time	Chapter Topic	Objectives: The students will be able to:	Teaching Resources:	Teaching Learning Strategies
Day 1	Unit1: Where We live now: Reading: Personal writing (Summers in Murree)	➤ improve reading skills ➤ learn new words □ answer the questions of the ➤ comprehension	textbook, notebook, writing board	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by asking the students to share their experience of visiting the northern area if they ever have one. Take their responses and link them to the lesson. Methodology: Tell them that the following text is personal writing. In “Summers in Murree”, Imran Khan, the writer recalls his summers as a child. Ask a few volunteers to read the passages aloud. Explain the text to them. Ask them to find the explanations of unfamiliar words. Encourage them to discuss the text in class. Explain the words “camouflage” to the students in detail. Vocabulary: Ask the students to match the words with their definitions. You will also move around the class to help them in solving this portion. Reading for Understanding: Discuss these questions (1-5) with your students. Write all on the board, now ask groups to answer it. Students may give you rough ideas, so help them to write it in a simple way, appreciate your students for their efforts so it will help them to do better work. Reading for details: Read out each question aloud and let the students guess the answers. Encourage every student to participate Wrap up: Wrap up the lesson by asking the students to share their favorite part of the text and tell why. Discuss the homework with the students. Home Work: Ask the students to use phrasal verbs: “threatened with, threatened by” in your own sentences.
Day 2 80 mins	Unit 1: Where We live now: Reading: Poetry: (Across the Indus)	➤ read the poem ➤ develop vocabulary ➤ do the given task	textbooks, whiteboard, notebooks	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by asking the students to look at the picture shown on the pg. 10 and share what they can see. Methodology: Start the lesson by reading the poem to the class. Explain it to them. Ask them to mark unfamiliar words and explain them properly. Tell them the poem is about a man who expresses his feelings when he visits the Indus. Read the poem with active participation of the students. Explain each meaning to them. Take their ideas and give your feedback. Reading for detail: Read each question to the students. Let them find and share the answers. Give your feedback. Vocabulary: Encourage the students to share the meanings of the given vocabulary. Give your response and make corrections. Reading for interpretation: Read out each question aloud. Let the students answer them. They can take help from the text as well. Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the students to share what was the most significant part of the poem. Take their reviews and discuss it in the class. Home Work: The students will do the worksheet in homework.

Day 3	Unit 1: Where We live now: Grammar: Participles	➤ revise pronouns ➤ learn and practice kinds of pronouns	Grammar books, whiteboard,	Introduction: Initiate the lesson by writing some sentences on the board like: 1. She was swinging too high. 2. I find horror movie really frightening. 3. Travelling is a pleasure. Tell them that these words in italics are participles used in different forms. Methodology: Tell the students these words are participles. Define the participle to the students that it is the part of the verb with the _ing ending for example swinging, laughing, travelling etc Tell them that participle can be used as a part of the verb like “He is always laughing.” Sometimes, participle can be used as an adjective like “The swinging lamp cast an eerie light in the darkness.” And it can also be used as noun like ‘Eating is a pleasure.’” Encourage them to share some more examples of participles. Writing Task: Explain the tasks to the students. Ask them to choose all the thirteen participles from the poem. Ask them to identify the use of participles (as verb, adjective or noun) in each case. Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the students to share one example of participle used as noun and as part of a verb.
----------	---	---	----------------------------	---

Worksheet

Topic: Sentences

Class: VI

Name: _____

Date: _____

➤ Use the following words in your own sentences in such a way that their meaning is clear:

1. eager:

2. deforestation:

3. commotion:

4. crafty:

5. condemned:

6. sedative:
