

Lesson Code		2022-08-01	Level	Elementary	Total Time	40 mins	Teaching Week	Aug (01-05)
Subject		Social Studies (His & Geo)	Books	Oxford Secondary Social Studies for Pakistan 2		Page No.	GEO: 1-3 HIS: 47-48	Class	VII
Day	Chapter Topic	Objectives: The students will be able to:	Teaching Resources:	Teaching Learning Strategies
Day 1	(Geography) Ch-1: Geography of the Muslim World	- discuss the Muslim world and its position	Textbook	Introduction: To check the prior knowledge of students, ask a few questions such as: - Name some countries of the world which are not Islamic countries but Muslims live there in great numbers. Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (page 1) - Draw the student's attention to the small graph on page 1. - Discuss with students the percentage of different religions in the world. - Explain that Islam is the second-largest religion and the fastest-growing one in the world. - Define Islamic countries: Muslim countries are those countries that have declared themselves Islamic countries e.g. Pakistan, Afghanistan, Iran, Saudi Arabia, etc. - Students will do a touch-go reading of the first paragraph on page 1 (the teacher taps a child when it's his or her turn to read). Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking questions such as: - Name some Muslim countries in Asia. Home Work: - Do reading of pages 2-3.
Day 2	Ch-1: Geography of the Muslim World	give an overview of the physical features of the Muslim world	Textbook	Introduction: To check the prior knowledge of students, ask a few questions such as: - List a few physical features found in the Muslim world. Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (pages 2-3) - Explain to the students the geographical features of the Muslim world. Written Activity: - Ask the students to look at the political map on page 2 of the textbook and explain the location of the Muslim world from East to West and North to South. - Ask the students to look at the map showing the physical features of the Muslim world (Page 2 of the textbook). 1. The key showing the land height shows that most of the Muslim countries are located on level land. 2. The mountain ranges are: a) North Africa The Atlas Range b) Ethiopia, Yemen, Saudi Arabia, Eastern Turkey and Iran are highlands.

Allied Schools

			c) The highest mountain regions are Afghanistan and Pakistan (Hindu Kush and the Karakoram.) Vegetation: Ask the students to look at the map showing the natural vegetation of the Muslim world. Ask them to study the key to natural vegetation. - Explain the term classifying the forests Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the given question: - What is an oasis? Home Work: - Read the pages of chapter 10- from 47 to 48 and reinforce chapter 1.
Day 3	(History) Ch-10: The Early Muslims	discuss early military expansion of the Muslims to the west, north, and east, from Arabia	Textbook Introduction: To check the prior knowledge of students, ask a few questions such as: - Ask the students the names of the Khulafa-e-Rashideen (RA): Hazrat Abu Bakr (RA), Hazrat Umar (RA), Hazrat Usman (RA) and Hazrat Ali (RA). Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (page 47) - Point out military expansion of the Muslim countries in the world map of the Oxford School Atlas for Pakistan, Page 71. - Introduce the topic 'Islam in South Asia'. - A brief history and achievements of the Arab Muslims from the 7th to the 16th centuries: - At the time of the death of Hazrat Ali (RA) Islam had spread beyond Arabia. - Major expansion of Islam during the Caliphate of Hazrat Umar (RA) took place. - How far? (a) Persia (Iran) to the east (b) Syria, Iraq, and Byzantine (modern Turkey) (c) Egypt to the west. Effects of this expansion - Discuss Persian and Byzantine empires (modern Iran and Turkey) were culturally developed at that time; the Arabs learned from them. - Discuss The Umayyad dynasty in detail Written Activity: - Students will do a touch-go reading on page 47 (the teacher taps a child when it's his or her turn to read). - Students will attempt the provided worksheet and paste it into their notebooks. Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking any of the given questions: - Who was given the credit to build up Muslim naval power? - When the Umayyad Dynasty did came into power? Home Work: Write the answer to question no 1 given on page 51.

Allied Schools

Day 4	Ch-10: The Early Muslims	discuss the effects of Muslim rule in Spain under the Ummayyads	Textbook • Introduction: Start the lesson by asking the students to read the information given on the left side of page 48. • Discuss the information with the students. Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (page 48) • Explain to the students about Cordoba was made the capital. Education, science, medicine, art, and culture flourished. • Cordoba's University was the largest and the best. It was a tolerant society. The Arab rule lasted in Spain till the 15th century. • Their influence can be seen in architecture, language, food, and culture. • Granada was the last stronghold. To the east, Muslim rule swept into Central Asia to the borders of China. • The end of Umayyad rule: In 750CE, they were defeated by the Abbasids who established their dynasty. • The Abbasids: (750 to 1258CE) famous rulers were: Haroon-al-Rashid and his son Mamoon. • Their achievements: the founding of the city of Baghdad • The Abbasid period is known as 'the age of wealth and culture.' • Discuss the Abbasid period in detail in the class; the rise of other Islamic states from the 8th to the 9th centuries: the Turks, the Ghaznavids (Afghanistan), and the Seljuq Turks occupied Iran, Iraq, and Turkey. Written Activity: • Do choral reading in the class on page 48. (Teacher and class read a passage aloud together.) • Write the answer to Q:2 in their notebook given on page 51. Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking any of the given questions: • How the Abbasid period is known as 'the age of wealth and culture.?' • Who was the son of Haroon-al-Rashid? • When did the Umayyad rule come to an end? Home Work: • Ask the students to revise the read content.
-------	--	--	---

Allied Schools

Worksheet no.1

Name: _____

Topic: The Early Muslim

Name three non-Muslim countries of South-east Asia which have large Muslim populations, and state their percentage

(Take help for the atlas pg. 70-71)
