

Lesson Code		2022-08-02	Level	Elementary	Total Time	40 mins	Teaching Week	Aug (08-12)
Subject		Social Studies (His & Geo)	Books	Oxford Secondary Social Studies for Pakistan 2		Page No.	GEO: 4-5 HIS: 49-50	Class	VII
Day	Chapter Topic	Objectives: The students will be able to:	Teaching Resources:	Teaching Learning Strategies
Day 1	(Geography) Ch-2: Climatic regions of the Muslim World	study in detail the climatic regions of the Muslim world	Textbook	Introduction: To check the prior knowledge of students, ask a few questions such as: - Name the factors which affect the climate of a region - What is the importance of climate for a region? - What happened to the climate in places where forests have been cut down? Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (page 4) - Explain that three-fourths of the world's major deserts are in Muslim countries. Semi-desert and scrublands: a) Temperature: hot during the day and cool at night b) Rainfall: scarce c) Vegetation: coarse, tough plants and shrubs - These plants have long roots to go deep down to get water from below the surface. Occupation: People rear goats and sheep. - The wool from the sheep in Pakistan is good for making carpets. - The western parts of Pakistan are semi-deserts e.g. Thar and Thal. Reading Activity: - Students will do a touch-go reading on page 4(the teacher taps a child when it's his or her turn to read. Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the given question: - Name the Muslim countries where deserts are found. Home Work: - Read the next page 5 of the chapter.
Day 2	Ch-2: Climatic regions of the Muslim World	-explain the Tropical Grasslands and Tropical Forest	Textbook	Introduction: Discuss the homework given and - Ask any keen student to come forward and tell about “Tropical Grasslands and Tropical Forest” - Teacher notes the points by writing them on the writing board. Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (page 5) Tropical grasslands (savannah) a) Location: they lie between the deserts and the tropical forests.

Allied Schools

				• b) Rainfall: between 500-1500 mm • c) Vegetation: scattered trees and tall grasses • d) Animals: game animals in Africa, for example, lions, giraffes, zebras, elephants, etc. Safaris are tourist attractions. Explain what a safari is. • Tropical forests: a) Location: Central Africa, along the equator and South-east Asia Oxford School Atlas for Pakistan, page 80 to check this location.) b) Rainfall: heavy; between 1800–2500 mm or more c) Temperature: 20o–30o C all the year-round d) Vegetation: thick forests of tall trees with giant creepers e) Animals: birds and monkeys on the tops of trees (canopy); snakes, lizards, and insects below f) forest products: teak and other hardwood, rubber g) Other crops: sugar cane, cocoa, mangoes, pineapple, and other tropical fruits h) Effects on human life: healthy, because of the amount of oxygen they provide, but diseases like malaria, etc. are common and life-threatening Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the given question: • Enlist the products produced by Tropical forests: • What is a safari? Home Work: • Write the answer to Q: 4 in their notebook given on page 9. Write the advantages and disadvantages of tropical forests.
Day 3	(History) Ch-10: The Early Muslims	-Comprehend the reasons and consequences of the crusades and their impact on Muslim rule	Textbook Maps/ Atlas	Introduction: To check the prior knowledge of students, ask the following questions: 1. What do you know about the crusades? 2. Who was the important leader at that time? Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (pages 49) • Explain that The Crusades were wars whipped up by the Catholic Church to try to recover Jerusalem and the holy land, to facilitate the passage for pilgrims, although the Muslims were very generous about this. • Discuss the effects of the Crusades and the Muslim rule. • Talk about the different dynasties of the Muslims. Written Activity: • Teacher will read the instructions/ question to the students. • Teacher will help them if they find any difficulty. Wrap up: Windup the lesson by asking a few questions, such as: 1. What were the consequences of the crusades? 2. Describe the things that Europeans learned from the Arabs? Home Work: Learn the timeline of the different dynasties of Muslims. Video link: Chapter 10, The early Muslims

Allied Schools

				https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7oi7JbSTYdE
Day 4	Ch-10: The Early Muslims	Comprehend the reasons and consequences of the crusades and their impact on Muslim rule	Textbook	Introduction: To check the prior knowledge of students, ask a few questions such as: - What were the other important dynasties during these centuries? Methodology: Discussion through Explanation (pages 50) - Continue the previous task in this class as well. Written Activity: - Worksheets will be distributed among the students. - Students will solve the worksheet individually. - Teacher will help them if they find any difficulty Wrap up: Wind up the lesson by asking the given question: - What did the Europeans learn from the Arabs? Home Work: No H.W

Allied Schools

➤ Complete the following.

Dynasties	Ruling Time Period
Fatimid
Seljuq
Ayubid
Mamlook
Ottoman
Mongols

Allied Schools

Social Studies

Chapter: The early Muslims

Class: VII

Page no 50-51 for answers